TICKETS ON SALE FOR SEE ROCK CITY

The Tellico Community Players are proud to present See Rock City written by Arlene Hutton. It is a joint collaboration with the Knoxville Word Players. The show is the sequel to last year's Last Train to Nibroc. The dates for the production are Friday, January 5th (7:30), Saturday, January 6th (7:30) and Sunday, January 7th (1:30). Tickets can be purchased online at our website: www.tellicocommunityplayhouse.org. Tickets will also be available at the box office beginning Tuesday, January 2nd from 10 to 2. Below is a synopsis of the play:

Set in rural Kentucky during the pains of World War II, this award-winning play by Arlene Hutton is a tender portrayal of married life set against the backdrop of World War II, showing the best of the human spirit and its ability to overcome any and all obstacles.

The Story: Raleigh, unable to join the soldiers on the front because of his medical condition, fights a war at home against the criticism of family and townsfolk, while facing rejection letters as an aspiring writer. May, a no nonsense high-school principal supports them both. In See Rock City, we view a young couple battle the world around and within and overcome adversity in the everyday.

The second play of a trilogy, and the recipient of the MacLean Foundation's "In the Spirit of America" Award. See Rock City stands alone as a very funny, touching and universal portrayal of a young couple very much in love.

If you have any questions, please contact Len Willis, TCP Artistic Director, at (423) 519-9807 or lenrishwillis@tds.net.

AUDITIONS SET FOR PLAYERS PRODUCTION OF NEIL SIMON'S "FOOLS"

Auditions for the Tellico Community Players' April/May production of Neil Simon's Fools will be held from 6-8 p.m., Friday January 12 and 2-4 p.m., Saturday, January 13 at the Tellico Community Playhouse (304 Lakeside Plaza) Tellico Village, Loudon. Directed by Patrick McCray and produced by Len Willis, Fools offers 10 roles: 3 male, two female and five that could be played by either a man or a woman. Production dates are April 26-28 and May 3-6. Rehearsals will begin in the first part of March.

Fools is a comedic fable about an idyllic Russian hamlet in the late 1800s. It features Leon Tolchinsky a teacher about 30 years old who has landed a job in the town, only to discover that the place has been cursed for 200 years by chronic stupidity. He finds people sweeping dust from the stoops back inside their houses and milking cows upside down to get more cream. Leon's job is to break the curse, but nobody tells him that if he stays over 24 hours and fails to break the curse, he too will become stupid. He falls in love with a girl so stupid that she only recently learned how to sit down.

American playwright and screenwriter Neil Simon is widely regarded as one of the most successful, prolific and performed playwrights in the world. Copies of the script are available at the Tellico Village Public Library. Questions can be directed to Patrick McCray at (865) 748-3636, or Len Willis at (423) 519-9807.

PETS OF THE WEEK: MEET TINKERBELL AND POCONO!

Tinkerbelle arrived at the Monroe County Animal Shelter with her 3 black & white kittens (all adopted). She is about 2 years old and a beautiful brown Chausie/Abyssinian mix with green eyes. She is very active and although she may be guarded initially, once she starts purring the house will shake. Chausies are highly intelligent, active, athletic cats that prefer to have human or cat companions around all the time. Tinkerbelle has a delightful personality and possess man of the Chausie/Abyssinian traits. Pocono is a 1 year old domestic shorthair Calico/Tabby who came to shelter with 3 kittens. She is an active girl with perfect litter box manners. Although Pocono does not enjoy being picked up right now, over time with loving care and trust this may change. She is fine with other cats or dogs if introduced slowly and she is best with older respectful children. Pocono is a cat that will greet you when you come home and weave herself between your legs showing you she missed you while you were gone.

All animals adopted are spayed or neutered, have age appropriate vaccinations and testing, and are microchipped (with registration). Cats are litter box trained. $40 adoption fee.

The Monroe County Animal Shelter is located at 170 Kefauver Lane in Madisonville (behind Wal-Mart). Please note new hours: Tuesday-Friday from 11-4:30 and Saturdays from 11-2. The shelter is closed to the public on Sunday and Monday. Call 423-442-1015 and check out all available pets on our web site at www.friendsofanimalsmc.org TN Monroe County Animal Shelter is the official Facebook page for the Monroe County Animal Shelter.
