Recreation News for June

It's the Grand Opening of Tellico Village Pickleball Courts, and TVPOA Recreation Department is celebrating with an Open House! Come mark this momentous occasion with the Recreation Department on Wednesday, June 4! All Recreation facilities will be open to any property owners who wish to check out what all we have to offer for FREE! Please come check out demos of both land and water classes beginning at 8:30 a.m. inside the Wellness Center.

The Ribbon Cutting on the new Pickleball courts will take place at 11 a.m. Be sure to put those tennis shoes on and join the Pickleball Club while they break in the new courts with exhibition games and beginner instruction. The festivities will be topped off with food, door prizes and music by our very own Lou Robitaille.

We encourage you to take advantage of $100 off the purchase of any membership. This incentive can only be applied to membership purchases made by property owners without current, active accounts with the Recreation Department and who are in good standing with the POA. These discounts are only applicable to memberships purchased on June 4 before 9 p.m. Memberships that are currently active, may not participate in the discount offer.

D-Day Display in Library June 6—Items Sought

June 6 is the 70th anniversary of D-Day. The Public Library at Tellico Village is planning a memorabilia display from World War II on June 6 with items loaned from proud individuals. The Library needs your help for our D-Day Memorabilia Display. If you have any souvenirs from World War II, please loan them to the Library and help us honor our veterans. You can drop off your items on Thursday, June 5, between 1 and 5 p.m. We promise to take extreme care with the items you graciously loan us, we understand how important and meaningful they are to you. The loaned items will be displayed 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Friday, June 6. You can pick them up 9-11 a.m. Saturday, June 7.

On June 6, John Thomson, author of "Fifty Years of Flying" will be present for conversation in the morning 10 a.m.-noon. Don Burgett, a WWII veteran of the Battle of the Bulge, will be present in the afternoon 1-3 p.m. "Okay, we'll go," were the words spoken by Supreme Commander Dwight D Eisenhower as he launched the greatest military amphibious invasion in world history. June 6, 1944, should be remembered as the day that brought about the beginning of the end of Hitler's Nazi-styled totalitarian, stranglehold on much of Europe. Nearly 160,000 allied troops crossed the English Channel to France that day. That day the casualties on the beaches were around 7,500 wounded and 2,500 dead. Seventy years later, let's look at the artifacts, learn about the landing, and thank the men who gave or altered their lives for freedom. Please call 865-458-5199 or go to www.tvlibrary.org for details.

Registration for Summer Reading Programs June 7

Ladies 9-Hole League Makes Donation to Good Shepherd Center

Rose Howard, of the Tellico Village Ladies Golf Association 9-Hole League, presented Tina Smith, Managing Director of The Good Shepherd Center of Monroe County, with a check in the amount of $464.50.

It is donations such as this from local organizations that allow the Good Shepherd Center to continue to provide food and clothing to the more than 2,000 men, women and children per month who are struggling to make ends meet. The majority of these people are at or below the poverty level and in constant survival mode, and the ability to put a nutritious meal on the table is a constant strain.
