symbol of the power and engineering prowess of the Inca. In the years since Machu Picchu was discovered by Hiram Bingham in 1911, there have been countless theories about this "Lost City of the Incas," yet it remains an enigma. Why did the Incas build it on such an inaccessible site? Who lived among its stone buildings, farmed its emerald green terraces, and drank from its sophisticated aqueduct system? NOVA joins a new generation of archeologists as they probe areas of Machu Picchu that haven't been touched since the time of the Incas. See what they discover when they unearth burials of the people who built the sacred site. DVD is 60 minutes long.

Be sure to join us for the free movie and eat some popcorn or drink a pop for a small donation. The movie start times will take into consideration when the sunsets and the chill factor.

17th Annual Spring Art Show Presented by the Art Guild of Tellico Village Begins May 1

An exhibit featuring new art pieces by members of the Art Guild of Tellico Village (AGTV) will take place May 1-3 at the Tellico Village Community Church. All artists, aspiring artists and art enthusiasts are invited to attend.

The show will open with a reception on 7-9 p.m. Friday, May 1. Refreshments and live music enhance the evening while guests have the opportunity to meet with the artists and learn what inspires their work. The exhibit continues 10 a.m.-4 p.m. Saturday, May 2; and 8 a.m.-2 p.m. Sunday, May 3.

Visitors will be treated to over 175 original works in a wide variety of mediums, showcasing the many talents of new and veteran guild artists. Both two dimensional and three dimensional artwork will be on display—from painting, drawing and photography to sculpture, jewelry, pottery and fabric art. Dr. Carl Gombert from Maryville College will serve as juror to choose 5 pieces for recognition. In addition, all attendees are invited to participate in selecting the "People's Choice" awards, which will be presented on Sunday afternoon.

There is no charge for the public to attend the opening reception or the exhibition.

For more information visit www.tellicoartguild.org

Meet the Author May 1

Laura Derr, the next author in The Public Library at Tellico Village's First Fridays for Local Authors Series, will be at the Library 10 a.m.-noon Friday, May 1.

Laura Derr is a retired teacher and marketing professional living in East Tennessee. She taught college English for 15 years in Virginia, Texas, and Iowa. While raising a family in Cedar Rapids, Iowa, she and her husband owned and operated a marketing research business for 17 years. She is currently a member of the Authors Guild of Tennessee.

Derr's family has lived in the Bluegrass area of Kentucky for five generations and raised tobacco for most of that time. Through her own tragic family history, she has a unique perspective on the tobacco wars of the early 1900s and how they affected lives both then and now.

Stop by and visit with Laura who will be onsite to discuss her book and writing in general.

TVVFD Open House May 2

The Tellico Village Volunteer Fire Department/fire and rescue team invites you to join your neighbors and friends at our 7th Annual Open House Fund Raiser.

Please join us on Saturday May 2, 11 a.m.-2 p.m., at the Village Fire House, 210 Chota Road, for lunch and refreshments as our way of thanking you for your moral and financial support over the years. The volunteers will be on hand with equipment demonstrations, treats for the kids and a warm hand shake.

This year the Fire Department achieved the Public Protection Classification rating of 04/4X from the Insurance Services Office Inc. This rating is commonly referred to as the ISO rating used by most insurance companies for establishing homeowner insurance rates. This significant achievement was accomplished over the last several years and is a reflection of how well our fire and rescue teams are equipped and how well they are trained. Your Tellico Village Fire and Rescue Volunteers are now rank in the top 26% of all fire departments in the State of Tennessee. So come on out and show your continued support.
