You remember an article you read in the Tell-E-Gram—but you cannot remember when it appeared! Do what the PR Department does: Go to www.TellicoVillagePOA.org, click on NEWS, click on TELL-E-GRAMS in the menu. Once you are on the repository of all Tell-E-Grams page, hit CTRL F (Control F) to open a FIND box. Type in one word to get the best results. For example, we were asked recently when the Toqua Pavilion ground breaking occurred. We typed in Toqua and hit NEXT until we came upon the April 1 issue. Typing in too many words or misspellings/different words may result in a lack of results. For Toqua, you could also just enter Toq (there are not many words that begin with that combination of letters). CTRL F works on any page.

Village’s No Solicitors Policy with Added Clarification

Solicitors seem to follow stormy weather as rainbows do rain. In Tellico Village, there is a policy against door-to-door solicitations (signs are posted throughout the Village), and it is considered trespassing; Village roads are private property. Only Village property owners and their guests have permission to use the roads. If you see anyone soliciting, contact Public Works as soon as possible by calling 865-458-4522 or call the police.

The policy does not apply to political candidates. The policy does apply to commercial solicitation. As a reminder, the ACC Blue Book prohibits the display of political signs in Tellico Village.

Love, Loss and What I Wore is a play written by Nora and Delia Ephron that won both the 2010 Drama Desk Unique Theatrical Experience Award and the 2010 Broadway.com Audience Choice Favorite New Off-Broadway Play Awards. It's initial and off-broadway productions featured casts that included Tyne Daly, Rosie O'Donnell, Blythe Danner, Marlo Thomas, Christine Lahti, Rhea Pearlman and Rita Wilson.
