From the Boardroom Golf Advisory Committee, Working for Villagers

By Alan Hart, POA Board of Directors

Another one of our effective advisory committees is the Golf Advisory Committee (GAC) under the direction of Jim West, Director of Golf for Tellico Village. It consists of the Director of Golf, a recorder, and seven volunteer residents. The Village volunteers who have staggered three-year terms represent both men and women golfers. The volunteers also represent both high and low handicap golfers so that all segments of our golfing community have a voice in what is happening in our golfing activities. The POA Board also has a liaison to the GAC which rotates each year. The committee regularly meets once a month on the second Thursday at 3 p.m. at the POA conference room. The meeting is open to anyone who is interested. The advice the committee gives to those managing the golf activities is invaluable and ranges from aesthetics of our courses, modifications to the courses for both maintenance cost reductions and ease of play, competitive market analyses, tournament and clinic opportunities, and fee schedules.

This year has been a very busy one for the GAC because of the significant new initiatives that they are sponsoring. One effort providing ongoing programs is the "SECOND TEE" which is a take-off of the youth program called the FIRST TEE which is for the very young. The Second Tee is for the young at heart Villagers who have been golfing for a long time and those who would like to find out what golf is all about, but have not had a forum to learn the basics and get started. The activities sponsored by the GAC are published widely so that signup should be easy to learn about, but you can also contact any of the pros or committee members for information.

Another new activity held recently was the Masters party held at the new pavilion in which members who participated chose a team of golfers at random and followed their progress throughout the tournament adding excitement to one of the most important tournaments in pro golf. The winners were those whose team score was the lowest for the combined four scores over the 72 holes. Of course, if one or more of your team failed to qualify, you then were out of the game but could still enjoy the tournament, and "wait until next year"! The GAC and golf pros are always looking for more ways to increase the usage and enjoyment of the golfing amenities that we have at our three championship courses.

Volunteer members and their end years are:

Michael Bourke – 2015

Jim Brown – 2015

Vicki Schwerdt – 2015

Larry Denney – 2016

Carol Ueland (Chair) – 2016

Sarah Havens – 2017

Some Other Stuff You Need to Know...

Community Players dress up in May for Love, Loss and What I Wore

Love, Loss and What I Wore is a charming collection of stories that uses the female wardrobe as a time capsule of a woman's life. Utilizing a rotating cast of five women, this play presents a series of monologues that explores women's relationships and wardrobes and, at times, the interaction of the two.

Love, Loss and What I Wore will be directed by Jane Venable and performances are scheduled for May 29, 30, and 31 (matinee) at the Tellico Community Playhouse (304 Lakeside Plaza, Loudon, TN). Shows start at 7:30 pm (except the May 31 1:30 p.m. matinee start) and doors open one hour before the scheduled performance.

Tickets are $15 and will be available for purchase at the Playhouse, Friday, 10 a.m.-4 p.m., May 29. Forms of payment will include check, cash, or credit card (at the box office only). Tickets for Love, Loss and What I Wore will also be available for purchase at Village Salon and Salon Anew in Loudon and the Kahite Bar & Grill in Vonore. See more at: www.tellicocommunityplayhouse.org.

She enjoys the several weeks she spends each year in the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee where her second book, Four Keys and a Cabin, takes place. Debby has a unique writing style. As she describes it, "I begin my story as it is revealed to me through my characters. I never know where the story will take me until I begin writing with my pencil and legal pad. Each chapter is revealed to me in this manner until my characters bring the mystery to a close."

Stop by and visit with Debby who will be onsite to discuss her book and writing in general.

Country Living Magazine Needs YOU

The Tombras Group, our marketing/communications agency, has been in discussion with Country Living Magazine about featuring a Tellico Village home in an upcoming issue of the publication. There is interest on the part of the editorial staff in reviewing five or six candidate Village homes. The key, of course, is submitting aspirant homes that feature a country look.

Here is a link to help you understand the type of homes the publication features:

<http://www.countryliving.com/home-design/house-tours/>

Country Living Magazine is a national publication and is widely read by the female demographic of our target audience. Securing coverage in this magazine would be a nice addition to our public relations effort. The TVPOA marketing team would like to exploit this opportunity.

To nominate your home, email John Cherry at jcherry@tvpoa.org with your name, address and phone number. We will accept submissions through June 2.
