Tellico Community Player's Present a Summer Festival of One Acts June 28

Tellico Community Players announce the Summer Festival of three one-act plays. Each one-act will be directed by a different individual. This is an exciting project for the players and an opportunity for novice directors to get their feet wet. Each show is approximately 30 minutes with a 15-minute intermission between each show.

The three one-act plays will be presented at the Grand Vista Convention Center. Opening night will be 7:30 p.m. Thursday, June 28; and will run through Sunday, July 1. Sunday's performance will be a 1:30 p.m. matinee. Also returning to the Grand Vista will be heavy appetizers and a cash bar. Tickets are $20 and will be available at the Village Salon, ReMax on the Lake, Kahite Pub and Grill, and Greer's Furniture in Loudon. Tickets will also be available at the door.

The first one-act is Nobody Famous by D.M. Larson, directed by Jim Thompson. The play covers a visit to a fortune teller and its surprising consequences.

The cast includes:

- Careol Lessnau as Brenda – A non-believing actress with a desire to be famous
- Jean Mallat as Heather – Brenda's believing and slightly ditzy friend
- Millie Leroy as Mooch – A fortune teller who gets surprisingly lucky
- Nick Brancik as Joe – An angry previous customer who feels cheated
- Connie Thompson as Gena - Brenda's agent
- Dave Hudgens as Barry – A movie scout

The second one-act is He Said and She Said written by Alice Gerstenberg and directed by Michaela Martin. The gossip abounds in the Halderman's living room just before a dinner party. Things get blown out of proportion when one friend feels it is her duty to protect her hostess from what “they” are saying.

This cast includes:

- Debbie Mayberry as Diana Chesbrough – A society girl
- Marie Fertitta as Enid Haldeman – Her friend and hostess
- Nelson Ledbetter as Felix Halderman – Husband to Enid
- Doris Ryan as Mrs. Cyrus Packard – Their friend

The third one-act will be The Case of the Music Guild Murders written by John Donald O’Shea and directed by Pamela Russell. It has been a tough year for the River City Music Guild. Two directors have been murdered and now the body of a third director has been found poisoned, stabbed, strangled, and shot. The police chief and his detective soon narrow down the murder suspects to those with the motive and opportunity to commit the murder-the Music Guild’s stable of sopranos!

This cast includes:

- Scott Mathout as Nick Tracey – Chief of police
- Bill Bruggen as Peter Hawk – Disheveled detective in the mode of Peter Falk
- Ku Adams as Katherine Heartburn – Actress who closely resembles Katherine Hepburn doing a screwball comedy
- Rose Ratcliff as Marian Monroe – Beautiful actress, built, blond and dumb
- Helen Nicholson as Gertrude Torrents – Gertrude Lawrence type actress – beautiful, talented, bitchy

As you can tell from the cast lists we have veteran actors and novice actors which only makes these productions even more exciting. Please join us at the Grand Vista for great theatre. If you have any questions, call Pam Russell, 865-408-7313.

Patriotic Celebration July 3

Village service groups (General Federation of Women’s Clubs—Tellico Village, Kiwanis, Lions, and Rotary) are planning the Independence Day celebration 5-8 p.m. Tuesday, July 3, in the Village Square. There will be entertainment, games for big and little “kids” and hot dogs and ice cream. Headlining the entertainment will be Tamra Comstock, Gateway Entertainment recording artist of Christian and country music. Also performing will be the East Tennessee Concert Band - and just wait until you see the display of showroom-ready new, vintage, sport and custom motorcycles! Come early, bring your friends, guests and neighbors and enjoy the celebration.
