Tellico Village Volunteers Add Value

The definition of a volunteer is a person who offers him or herself for a service or undertaking without monetary compensation. But volunteering is even more than that, particularly in Tellico Village. We excel in our willingness to give of our time and energy. Volunteers are needed for the POA Board of Directors, POA Advisory committees, clubs, organizations, HOA Board, Loudon County Animal Shelter, and Monroe County Animal Shelter, Good Samaritan Center, Good Neighbor Shoppe just to name a few.

The POA Board consists of seven members who are elected on a rotating base. In 2012, there will be two open seats, each for a three-year term. Applications are available at the POA office. The deadline to become a candidate and place your name on the ballot for the POA Board is Sept. 14. Your application must be turned in by 3 p.m. at the POA office.

There are seven POA Advisory committees. They, too, need volunteers to serve. The committees are Architectural Control (ACC), Finance (FAC), Communications and Marketing (CMAC), Long Range Planning (LRPAC), Public Services (PSAC), Recreation (RAC), and Golf (GAC). Each committee is made up of five to seven members and the department manager. Each Advisory Committee has a POA Board member who acts as a liaison to the POA Board for ongoing communication and coordination within the Village. The committees meet once a month except the ACC which meets twice.

Any property owner may apply for a position on any committee by completing an application form available at the POA office. Applications are due no later than Oct. 1, at the close of business (5 p.m.). Each application is reviewed by the department manager and committee chair for the requested committee; the applicant is then interviewed. Committee terms vary from one to three years. Committee recommendations are presented to the POA Board for final approval at the December board meeting.

All committee members and elected members of the POA Board are VOLUNTEERS. The real success of Tellico Village is based on the outstanding volunteer spirit of our resident property owners. Without these individuals' willingness to give of their time, Tellico Village would not be what it is today: HomeOwners Association, Child Advocacy Center, The Good Neighbor Shoppe, the Tellico Village Public Library, Monroe County Animal Shelter, and Good Shepherd Center, just to name a small fraction. We have approximately 100 full-time and 70 part-time employees including seasonal workers who provide outstanding service on a daily bases. Tellico Village still needs volunteers for our committees, clubs, organizations, churches, etc.

Not only do residents volunteer within Tellico Village but they support many Loudon and Monroe County groups and agencies. It was Tellico Village volunteers who started or strongly support the many organizations where our residents share their time, expertise and energies. Without each and every volunteer, Tellico Village would be a much different place. Volunteering is Tellico Village's middle name. Please think about being part of the Tellico Village volunteer spirit.
