2012 President's Award Winners Announced

President's Award Winners

POA Board President Bob Coates described that President's Awards go to those serving the POA directly. They include POA Board members, POA Advisory Committee members, and other individuals or groups that have rendered exemplary service to the Tellico Village POA during the year. Candidates are nominated by Board members and POA staff heads, and are approved by the Board.

Tom Broniecki: Tom Broniecki was instrumental in making the 25th Anniversary Parade a memorable community event for everyone who attended or participated. He single-handedly secured hundreds of dollars in donations from local businesses and individuals. He was able to get more than 70 people to donate their time and effort to bring the event to life. Tom also serves on the Communications and Marketing Advisory Committee of the POA.

Carol Moehrke: Over the past several years, Carol has volunteered to assist golf operations with painting and related maintenance of clubhouse and on course restrooms. If you appreciate the outstanding condition and decorating of these rest rooms, you can thank Carol. She has taken this responsibility to the extreme. Carol has painted walls, prepared/cleaned and painted on-course bathroom floors, painted and re-painted clubhouse bathrooms and counters and also kept a watchful eye on necessary touch-up work. She has done all of this for just the cost of paint. Her work is extraordinary and has saved the POA many thousands of dollars. [Carol will receive her award at the December Board meeting.]

Lou Robitaille: This year Lou has volunteered for numerous events that have benefited the Recreation Department and Village as a whole. He shared his DJ skills at the April 25th Recreation Celebration and most weekend nights at the Tiki Bar in the Yacht Club. He has been a bright, energetic light for other activities such as the Channel 3 Flash Mob and providing assistance with the marketing program as a model. The atmosphere he created on April 25th for the Recreation Department is still being talked about to this day. In conclusion, Lou embodies the ultimate Villager. His eagerness is inspiring and his sense of community manifests itself in a willingness to get out there and make everyone have fun. His youthful spirit infuses everyone he's around with joy.

Claire Frazer and Ginny Ranck: Claire and Ginny have volunteered hundreds of hours this year bringing us the 25th Anniversary events we have all enjoyed. They are too numerous to review here, but as most of you know, every month we had fun and memorable events celebrating our 25-year history.

TVLGA-18 Ends Season

Oct. 30 was the closing day for the TVLGA-18 golf season. Although weather conditions forced the cancellation of the 9-hole scramble event, members gathered at the Yacht Club to enjoy a luncheon and look back over the 2012 golf season.

Highlights of the year included hosting the first Loudon County Invitational tournament. This two-day event was held in early October at Tennessee National and Toqua Golf Course. Also new to this season were the "Bring a Man Day" tournament held in July at Kahite and "Give Back Day", the league's charitable tournament which raised funds to support Project Lifesaver.

Special recognition was given to Sarabel Nowlin for a hole-in-one she recorded in tournament play at the Wee Course in Knoxville on Oct. 23.

President Lyn Layman turned over leadership to new officers for the 2013 season: President, Sarah Havens; Vice-President, Janet Kincaid; Secretary, Vicky Schwerdt; Treasurer, Bobbi Taylor; Membership Chair, Diane Preston.

Season tournament winners honored at the luncheon were:

- President's Cup Winner, June Lund
- League Champion, Vicki Whitmore
- Most Improved, Rosemary Overton
- Member/Member champions, Janet Kincaid and Norma Burt.

T. Norman Mixed Doubles Tourney Results

The T. Norman mixed doubles tennis tournament was played on a beautiful windy day at the Wellness Center courts. This annual event uses a round robin format with one point awarded to each team for every game won. The winners won by one point in this closely contested and thrilling tournament with Bruno Barbaro and Cathy Ligdis the victors. Each won a cash prize and will have their names engraved on the T. Norman plaque in the Rec Center.
