

Tanasi Restoration Update 5.16.23

The Tanasi Restoration Committee, RFP review subcommittee held in-person meetings with the top 3 architectural firms. They agreed unanimously to recommend Paradym Studio. In a meeting held on April 20th, the Tanasi Restoration Committee made the recommendation to the Board of Directors to also recommend Paradym Studios. The Board voted electronically to allow us to hire Paradym Studios to design the new Tanasi Clubhouse. This vote will be ratified at the May Board Meeting.

A little about Paradym Studio:

Paradym Studio is an architecture firm based in Tennessee that offers a range of design services for residential, commercial, and institutional clients. The firm was founded in 2016 by Architect and Owner, Tyler Thayer, and has since built a reputation for creating innovative, sustainable, and functional designs. The firm has 26 employees and over 100 years of Architectural experience within the office. They are based out of Nashville and have completed a wide variety of multi-use projects.

What the committee liked most about Paradym Studio was its wide variety of recent multi-use projects. They have a large team and have a team approach to getting jobs done on time. They also have experience in construction and design.

A kick-off meeting was held on May 2nd to review team expectations, timeline, budget, and design elements.
